KEITH BARIBAULT, MD, FASDP, FCAP

Board-Certified Dermatopathologist

Dr. Baribault is a board-certified dermatopathologist with additional board certification in anatomic and clinical pathology. He earned his medical degree from Albert Einstein College of Medicine, where he was inducted into Alpha Omega Alpha, and completed his residency in anatomic and clinical pathology, including a term as chief resident, at New York Presbyterian Hospital/Columbia University Medical Center. He went on to complete fellowship training in dermatopathology at the Ackerman Academy of Dermatopathology/SUNY Downstate Medical Center. Dr. Baribault graduated magna cum laude from Harvard University with a degree in chemistry.

With more than 15 years of experience in dermatopathology, Dr. Baribault has held Medical Director and Managing Director roles in the Tampa, Florida area, along with serving as a Technical Supervisor overseeing laboratory operations. He has been active in resident education, previously serving as core faculty for dermatopathology at Largo Medical Center, where he provided monthly lectures and supported residents through hands-on sign-out sessions and with their own publications. Prior to that, in New York, he also instructed residents as a clinical assistant professor at SUNY Downstate Medical Center and lectured at regional dermatopathology review courses. Dr. Baribault has also served as a College of American Pathologists inspector, including as team leader for several inspection cycles.
